

All I Can See is You

Steve Kloser

D Bm7 Em7

A D G/D F#m7 G6

If I could write a song a - bout this mo - ment,

8 A Em7 Ebmaj9 Dmaj7 Dmaj7

A - bout the twin - kle in your eye. _____

B G Em7(b5) F#m7 Fmaj7

Your sun - shined hair as it dan - ces in the wind, and

16 Em7 Em7(b5)/Bb A sus A

how your sweet per - fume keeps whisp - ing by. _____

All I Can See is You

C D A7/C# Am/C Em7

If I _____ could _____ write a song a - bout this day - dream,

24 A Em7 Ebmaj7 Dmaj9 Dmaj9

Each pass - ing mo - ment feels so new!

D G Em7(b5) F#m7 Fmaj7

All of the things that I'd find to sing a - bout are

32 Em7 A13 D D

all the things I see when I see you. My

36 Bbmaj9 Am7 Gm9 Fmaj9

heart still pounds when I hold your hand, my

All I Can See is You

40 Ebmaj9 C 13 F maj7 F maj7

knees seems to buc - kle and shake. When I

E Bb Bb/C F maj7 Dm7

hold you close and your lips touch mine, _____ I have to

48 Bbmaj7 Am7 Gm9 F maj7

pinch my - self to con - vince my - self that I'm

52 Dm7 Em A sus A

ac - tual - ly a - wake!

F D A7/C# Am/C Em7

If _____ I wrote you _____ a song a - bout this ev - 'ning, so

All I Can See is You

60

A Em7 Ebmaj7 Dmaj9 Dmaj9

ma - gic - cal here be - neath the moon,

G G Em7(b5) F#m7 Fmaj7

All I could write would be all the things you are 'cause

68

Em7 A13 D D

all that I can see to - night is you.

