

The Snake Song

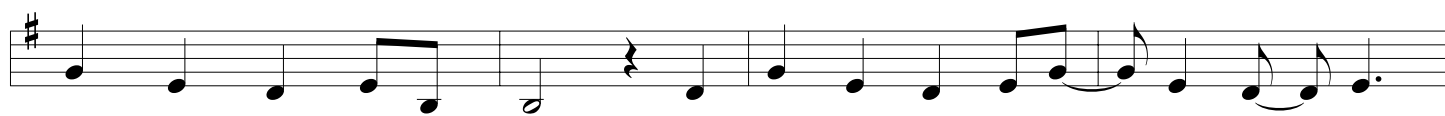

www.kokopellipress.com

Steve Kloser

1. My snake is ve - ry fri - end - ly. He
 2. chick - en is so hap - py. She
 3. ea - gle is so hand - some. Yes,
 4. mouse is so ex - ci - ted. As

G wears pink ten - nis shoes. My snake is ve - ry fri - end - ly and he 7 loves to whis - tle so. My chick - en is so hap - py she can some might call him vain. He's look - ing in the mir - ror now ad - you can plain - ly see. He found a tun - nel un - der - neath the

G

C7

G

11 ne - ver gets the blues. He can snooze right through the blues!
 whis - tle high or low. She can blow now don't you know?
 just - ing his tou - pee. Hey, hey, hey, what can I say?
 cheese fac - to - ry! Hear him squeak, "man, life is sweet!"

D7

G

16 When I get feel - in' sad and lone - ly, I think a - bout my one
 When I get feel - in' sad and lone - ly, I think a - bout my one
 When I get feel - in' sad and lone - ly, I think a - bout my one
 When I get feel - in' sad and lone - ly, I think a - bout my one

D7

C7

G

20 and on - ly sleep - in' snake in his pink ten - nis shoes. My and on - ly whis - tlin' chick - en then I'm good to go. My and on - ly G. Q. ea - gle check - in' out his wave. My and on - ly gour - met mouse just chomp - in' on some cheese. If

© 2014 kokopelli press - Portland, OR

www.kokopellipress.com

The Snake Song

D7 G

25 I get feel - in' sad ___ and lone - ly, I think a - bout__ my cra - zy cro - nies,

D7 C7 G

29 clap my hands and sing this mel - o - dy!___

