

Screens, Cars & Dinosaurs

by Steve Kloser
© 2026 Kokopelli Press

There once was a time when there were no screens!
Can you believe it?
What would you do, if it were you, if it were true, today?

Would you read a book or sing a song or go outside and play?
And wish the sunny day would never end?
Playing ball or picking flow'rs or watching clouds for hours and hours.
Is that the sort of thing that you would do?

There once was a time when there were no cars!
Can you believe it?
What would you do, if it were you, if it were true, today?

Would you walk to school and then run home, or ride a horse instead?
Or hop the train that's comin' 'round the bend?
Trolley cars and buggy rides or spending hours just riding bike.
Is that the sort of thing that you would do?

There once was a time when there WERE dinosaurs!
Can you believe it?
What would you do, if it were you, if it were true, today?

Would you catch a brontosaurus pup and keep him as a pet?
And learn to ride him all around the town?
With pterodactyls in the sky and stegosaurus strolling by.
Is that the sort of thing that you would do if it were you if it were true what would you do, if it were you?

Screens and cars and dinosaurs are great to have, it's true.
The biggest key to happiness is what's inside of you.